Public Policy Documents & Student Conduct Rules (Extract and Summary)

Report date: December 23, 2025

This report summarizes policy-relevant information publicly available on the official Air University website, including downloadable PDFs and key policy hub pages. It focuses on: dress code and student conduct, anti-harassment, examination integrity, scholarships, governance/ethics, equality & inclusion, and selected campus operations policies.

Important note: Air University may maintain additional policies on the AU intranet or in internal handbooks. For formal use, always verify against the latest official document linked from AU pages.

Executive summary

Key policy areas and headline rules captured in the publicly accessible documents:

- Dress code (students): Separate guidance for boys and girls; improperly dressed students may be fined on the spot or asked to leave the premises (Orientation Booklet, Fall 2022).
- Smoking ban: All forms of smoking are prohibited on campus, including e-cigarettes; policy states a PKR 1000 fine and potential disciplinary action, with escalation for repeat offenders (Orientation Booklet, Fall 2022).
- Anti-harassment: AU declares "zero tolerance" and sets reporting channels via focal persons, proctors, and inquiry committees; scope includes third parties and off-campus incidents involving AU computing/network resources (AU Anti-Harassment Policy, 20 Apr 2025).
- Exam integrity: Lists of unfair means (including unauthorized devices) and penalties (e.g., F grade, fine, confiscation, and possible expulsion for severe/repeat cases) are published as student instructions (AU Examination documents).
- Merit scholarship: Tuition fee waivers are defined by class/section position and SGPA thresholds; disciplinary punishment disqualifies a student from merit scholarship for the next semester (Merit Scholarship Policy).
- Ethics & compliance: AU publishes an Anti-Corruption and Anti-Bribery Policy with a zero-tolerance stance (QEC Governance repository).
- Equality & inclusion: AU publishes an Equality, Diversity and Inclusive policy (includes recruitment/selection equal-opportunity commitments) and a policy document on reporting discrimination (QEC repository).
- Campus operations: AU SDG policy PDFs describe waste management, food safety, and water management objectives and responsibilities.

Where the policies are published (official hubs)

1.2 Additional campus conduct rules

- Student ID cards: Students must carry and display ID cards on campus at all times; failure may lead to entry denial, fine, and disciplinary action.
- Smoking ban: Smoking (including e-cigarettes) is prohibited; policy describes PKR 1000 fine and possible referral for disciplinary action; repeat offenders may face additional sanctions.
- Anti-litter: Littering is prohibited; policy describes PKR 1000 fine or 3 hours community service (litter pickup) and possible escalation for repeat offenses.
- Banners/posters: Banners/posters and meeting notices reflecting religious/political/ethnic/regional/sectarian parties are prohibited; slogans/propaganda/noise causing disorder are prohibited.
- Visitors: Students cannot bring visitors/guests without prior permission; visitors must display visitor cards and violations can lead to disciplinary action.
- Social media (student-facing note): Individuals are responsible for consequences of their uploads/likes/comments on social media.

1.3 Discipline framework (as described in the booklet)

Disciplinary cases are initially handled by the Department of Student Affairs for investigation/findings. Serious matters are investigated by the Discipline Committee; recommendations are submitted through the Director Student Affairs to the Vice Chancellor for final approval.

Examples of acts of indiscipline (non-exhaustive)

- Breach of decency; indecent language; disorderly conduct.
- Defiance of authority and non-compliance with AU rules.
- Cheating, impersonation, or submitting false information.
- Damage/misuse of university property and facilities.
- Possession/consumption/sale/distribution of alcohol or drugs.
- Political/ethnic/racial/sectarian activity on campus or misuse of student organizations for political causes.

Possible disciplinary actions listed (non-exhaustive)

- Written warning; probation; fine.
- Withholding certificate of good moral character.
- Cancellation of examination results.

- Expulsion/rustication; non-conferment of degree; other penalties approved by the Vice Chancellor.

2. Anti-harassment policy and reporting mechanisms

Air University publishes a dedicated Anti-Harassment Policy page and a formal Anti-Harassment Policy (Office of the Registrar, 20 April 2025). The policy states AU's commitment to a safe, respectful, and inclusive environment and adopts a "zero tolerance" stance.

2.1 Scope (who and where it covers)

- Applies to students, faculty, and staff across campuses and affiliate colleges.
- Also applies to third parties such as vendors, contractors, visitors, and service providers.
- Covers harassment using AU computing/network resources accessed off-campus (treated as occurring on campus).

2.2 Categories of harassment (as listed)

- Physical harassment (violence/unwanted physical contact).
- Personal harassment/bullying (insults, derogatory statements, belittling).
- Discriminatory harassment (based on protected characteristics).
- Psychological harassment (condescending remarks impacting mental health).
- Cyberbullying (online threats, rumors, sharing private/confidential info).
- Sexual harassment (including quid pro quo).
- Third-party harassment (from non-permanent AU community members).

2.3 Reporting and routing of complaints (high-level)

- Complaints may be filed with focal persons, proctors, or inquiry committee members.
- Students are encouraged to submit written complaints via Student Affairs; employees via HR.
- Policy states all reported cases are notified to the Vice Chancellor or the Registrar.
- Routing varies by category (e.g., student-vs-student bullying/physical incidents to Disciplinary Committee; staff-related cases to HR grievance mechanisms; discriminatory harassment to an Academic Grievance Redressal Committee; sexual harassment to the Harassment Inquiry Committee via focal person).

2.4 Supporting documents on the AU policy page

- HEC policy framework PDF (hosted via AU page).
- Pakistan legal reference: Protection Against Harassment of Women at the Workplace (hosted via AU page).
- Notification: Establishment of Anti-Harassment Committee (dated 03 Jan 2025).

3. Governance, ethics, equality and inclusion

The AU QEC policy repositories include several governance and social-impact related policy documents.

3.1 Anti-corruption and anti-bribery

- Declares zero tolerance for corruption and bribery.
- Defines corruption/bribery and notes that gifts are not prohibited unless linked to rewards, positions, or tasks.
- States that staff/faculty/students involved in corruption/bribery may face strict disciplinary action.

3.2 Reporting discrimination

- A policy document titled "Policy: Reporting Discrimination" is published in the QEC governance repository.
- Scope statement references discrimination in education or employment of women and outlines broad parameters related to working women and empowerment within AU functioning.

3.3 Equality, diversity and inclusive policy (includes recruitment and selection SOP)

- States AU is an equal opportunity employer and aims to provide a work environment free from harassment and discrimination.
- Recruitment/selection to be based on merit; candidates assessed on skills, knowledge, qualifications, and capabilities without discrimination across listed factors (e.g., gender, marital status, race, religion, physical impairment, political opinions).

4. Examination integrity and student instructions

Air University publishes short student instruction PDFs related to examinations. These documents define unfair means, list penalties, and provide do's and don'ts for exam conduct.

4.1 What constitutes "unfair means" (examples)

- Accessing or attempting to know the question paper before an exam.
- Possessing or using written/printed external material in the exam room.
- Possessing or using mobile phones, smart watches, or other unauthorized devices with cheating material.
- Impersonation; mass cheating; hiding evidence; tempering of results; rowdy behavior/arguing with invigilator.

4.2 Penalties for unfair means (examples)

- F grade (subject or group), downgrade, and/or PKR 5000 fine (as listed in the penalties PDF).
- Confiscation of unauthorized device(s).
- Warning letter and restrictions on scholarships/fee concessions for subsequent semester(s) in certain cases.
- Dismissal/termination/expulsion may apply depending on the gravity of the offense.

4.3 Exam conduct guidance (do's and don'ts)

- Arrive early; entry may be denied shortly before exam start (as described in Tips for Good Examination).
- Do not talk, borrow items, or change seats; do not carry unauthorized devices; do not remove sheets from answer books (Don'ts of Examination).

5. Scholarships policy (Merit Scholarship Policy)

Air University publishes a Merit Scholarship Policy covering undergraduate and MS/M.Phil programs.

- Undergraduate: fee waiver for top-3 position holders per class/section (50%, 40%, 30% tuition). SGPA 4.0 is described as 100% tuition waiver (within top-3).
- Undergraduate eligibility includes SGPA ≥ 3.5 and full study load; policy states no merit scholarship in summer; disciplinary punishment disqualifies for the next semester; graduating batch not awarded.
- MS/M.Phil: position-holder waivers (35%, 30%, 25% tuition). SGPA 4.0 described as 50% tuition waiver (within top-3). Eligibility includes SGPA ≥ 3.75 ; no summer and thesis work; disciplinary punishment disqualifies for next semester; graduating batch not awarded.

6. Campus operations and sustainability policies (SDG policy PDFs)

Air University hosts several campus operations and sustainability policy PDFs (SDG Policies). The following are key highlights from three policies located in the publicly accessible repository.

6.1 Waste management policy

- Describes responsibilities for proper disposal by employees, students, contractors and visitors.
- Uses guiding principles: reduce, reuse, recycle, recover, dispose.
- References certification/records related to disposal vendor(s) and storage practices to prevent leakage/spillage.

6.2 Food safety policy

- States AU takes food safety seriously because many dine daily on campus.
- Highlights prevention of contamination and poisoning through safe handling practices, segregation of cooked/uncooked food, and monitoring expiry/storage temperature.

6.3 Water management policy

- Describes water sourcing context (tube wells and supply) and drinking water via filters/dispensers.
- Encourages conservation; notes no water recycling plant stated in the policy; sets objectives to use water wisely and comply with relevant laws/rules.
